

JAN 23 1952

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP

MILWAUKEE
JOURNAL

Ex-City Man Heads U. S. Agency Security

FOIAb3b

Journal Washington Bureau //

Washington, D. C. — George P. Morse, 35, formerly of Milwaukee, Wednesday was appointed director of security for the United States public health service and assistant security director for the federal security agency.

His wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Groeger, live at 2508 W. Concordia av. Mrs. Morse is the former Margaret Mary Groeger. Morse's parents are dead.

Morse was graduated from St. John's Cathedral high school and from the National university law school here. He left Milwaukee 13 years ago.

Morse formerly worked for the United States civil service commission and the central intelligence agency. In World War II he was with the office of strategic services. He was on the staff of Justice Robert H. Jackson during the trials of Nazi war criminals.

CPYRGHT